

Muhammad Hafiz is a new media artist and designer who was born in Penang, Malaysia in 1983. He received his BFA degree in new media from the Universiti Sains Malaysia in Penang in 2007 and his MFA in computer art with a concentration in interactive installation from the School of Visual Arts in New York City in 2010. Hafiz's video and installations have been included in numerous exhibitions. His works creates an immersive environment through a blending of programming and interactivity, which invites the viewer to question the boundaries in human/machine interactions and ultimately, the meaning of communication.